1 After the last section, add the following and renumber sections and 2 internal references accordingly:

3 "Sec. 501. (NEW) (Effective January 1, 2012) (a) Any person currently 4 holding a license issued by the Department of Consumer Protection 5 pursuant to title 20 of the general statutes who has attained the age of 6 sixty-five may renew his or her license as a retirement status license 7 pursuant to subsections (b) to (d), inclusive, of this section.

8 (b) An applicant for a retirement status license shall submit his or 9 her original license to the Department of Consumer Protection, along 10 with a letter of request for such classification. The letter shall contain a 11 statement expressing the licensee's current retirement status and the 12 acceptance of a restriction on the retirement status license prohibiting 13 the applicant from actively engaging in the practice of the occupation

14 or trade for which a license was originally issued.

15 (c) A licensee issued a retirement status license shall not practice or 16 offer to practice the occupation or trade for which a license was 17 originally issued.

18 (d) If the Department of Consumer Protection issues a retirement
19 status license pursuant to this section, it shall return the original 20 license submitted pursuant to subsection (b) of this section to the 21 applicant. Such original license shall bear a designation or be stamped 22 "Retired".

23 (e) The fee for a retirement status license shall be twenty dollars.

24 (f) A licensee issued a retirement status license may restore such 25 licensee's original license by submitting a form, to be provided by the 26 Department of Consumer Protection, requesting reinstatement and by 27 paying the current annual fee for such license.

28 (g) The Commissioner of Consumer Protection may, for good cause
29 shown, grant a retirement status license to a person who does not meet 30 the requirements of subsection (a) of this section."
